

Off to RV Legends In CT Land

Friday, 14 July 2006

So off to RV Legends we go. Its about a 6 hour drive today to get down to Waterbuy, and we'll have to find a place to sleep on the way back.

Unfortunately some issues with my GPS left us stuck on the Massachusetts turnpike (I now know what a turnpike is!) adding another 1 hour to our driving time down to Waterbuy.

Our trip to RV Legends met with suces! After a few hours comparing a 16ft Bambi with front and back wraparound windows to a Safari 19ft Bambi and the David Winick 19ft Bambi, we left sure that we would be soon be purchasing a 75th.
